

NORTH FLORIDA COLLEGE

March 12, 2020

Dear Students,

In response to the movement of the COVID-19 outbreak in the U.S. and across the state of Florida, NFC has taken precautionary measures to ensure the health and safety of its students, faculty and staff. Classes will be cancelled on Friday, March 13th. Course instruction will be moved online March 23rd and remain online until April 3rd. Normal operations will resume on April 6th. During this time, college employees are here to assist you with your needs. We encourage you to call or email when possible. Contact information for departments will be listed below.

The Kelly Center and the Student Center will not be open to students at this time. The Admissions Office, Registrar's Office, Student Support Services, Financial Aid and Academic Advising will proceed with business as usual.

The Library will be open for its normal operating hours so that students may use the computer labs. Tutoring will be offered virtually. The Testing Center will be limited use. Please call for questions.

Classes at the Live Oak Location will also be moved to an online format.

If would like to contact the offices listed above, you may call or email. The contact information is listed below.
