PRESIDENT'S HIGHLIGHTS

President Page gave an overview of the following:

- First month of fall semester off to great start – Enrollment up 6% over last fall
- Hosted dual enrollment summit on 8/28/26 - Excellent turnout from school district partners
- Prep work underway for upcoming legislative season
- Philip Wilkerson has assumed the role of Associate VP of Career and Workforce Education – adding a layer of support for CAO David Dunkle and the expansion of workforce programming at NFC
- CELEBRATE! NFC has the top spot yet again, leading the FCS in 150% Gradation Rate

ATTORNEY TIME

Mr. Rob Sniffen reported that there is no active litigation and that he is compiling the evaluations submitted by Board members. He will provide a report to the Board soon.

GOOD OF THE ORDER

Mr. Washington inquired about the photo of former President John Grosskopf for the Board Room, as well as NFC email addresses for Board members. Dr. Page stated that the Office of Communications is working on the photo, and Computer Services is in the process of setting up email addresses for the Board members.

Chair Lyons then announced that the next regular meeting will be held on Tuesday, October 20, 2026, at 5:30pm in Madison, FL. He then asked Mr. Hines to lead us in a prayer before dinner and the meeting was adjourned at 6:15pm.

Respectfully submitted,

Dr. Jennifer Page
President

Ricky Lyons
Chair
